First swimming pool creative underwater photography competition in Portugal

The Casco Antigo, in partnership with photographer Rui Guerra, is organizing the first swimming pool creative underwater photography competition in Portugal, with unmatched technical conditions.

The event, called "Creative Casco Photo Guerra 2012", will take place on 15 and 16 December 2012 and will be a strong motivation for underwater photographers' creativity, breaking through the limitations of traditional underwater photography competitions and enhancing the creative side of each participant.
